Bodo students' demand for separate state of Bodoland

1916. SHRI VITHALBHAI M. PATEL: Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether the attention of the Government of India has been drawn to the news item published on December 30, 1989 in the Times of India under the caption "Bhutan paid for Bodo areas";

(b) whether it is a fact that India is paying Rs. 5 lakhs to Bhutan for part of Bodoland;

(c) whether it is a fact that Dewangiri territory of Bodoland has been given to Bhutan; and

(d) what is the reaction of Government on the demand of Bodo Student's Union for a separate State of Bodoland?

THE MINISTER OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI I. K. GUJRAL): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) and (c) No Sir. Dewangiri was originally part of Bhutan and was captured by the British in 1864 during the Anglo-Bhutan war. Under Article IV of the Treaty of Sinchula, Govt. of Bhutan ceded Dewangiri, along with other areas to the British Government. The latter agreed to pay an annual compensation for these areas. Under Article III of Indo-Bhutan Treaty of 1949, the Govt. of India agreed to make an annual payment of Rs. 5 lakhs in place of the compensation granted under the Treaty of Sinchula.

In response to repeated requests from the Government of Bhutan, the Govt. of India, under Article IV of the Indo-Bhutan Treaty of 1949, agreed to the return of Dewangiri to Bhutan to underline the friendship existing and continuing between the two Governments.

(d) the Government of India, on several occasions, have reiterated that it was not in favour of any further division of Assam. They are extending all necessary help and cooperation to the State Government of Assam for solving the problems of the Bodo/Plan Tribals.
